

RESOLUTION No. 16-560

WHEREAS, the City Council and the Mayor of the City of Huntsville, Alabama are apprised that Saved in the City will host its 2016 Conference from August 19-21, 2016, at the Von Braun Center in Huntsville, Alabama; and,

WHEREAS, Saved in the City, a faith-based organization, seeks to encourage and equip women with the tools needed for a successful Christian life. The organization provides a safe platform for women to learn, grow and share through small groups, fellowships and outreach projects with local shelters, nursing homes, community agencies and even overseas missions; and,

WHEREAS, Saved in the City is a non-profit organization and Bible-teaching ministry who are committed to excellence in communicating the truths of Scripture and the person of Jesus Christ. Saved in the City was founded in 2011 on the campus of Alabama A&M University. What started as five women meeting together every week for bible study has grown into hundreds of women meeting weekly in 4 different cities; and,

WHEREAS, this weekend's conference includes powerful worship experiences, group sessions, as well as beauty and health seminars for the attendees. In just 3 years, Saved in the City has hosted over 2,500 women from all across the country and they are excited about what's to come.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the City Council and Mayor of the City of Huntsville, Alabama, do hereby acknowledge, congratulate, and extend best wishes to the Saved in the City on hosting the 2016 Conference. May you have continued success in all future endeavors.

ADOPTED this the 11th day of August, 2016.

President of the City Council of the City of Huntsville, Alabama
